The customer will receive a bill on the first of each month stating the amount to be deducted. The draft will be drawn against the checking account on or about the 10th of the same month. Should you have a dispute with the amount billed, you must contact the Beech Island Water District in writing before the tenth of the disputed billing month.

I understand that Beech Island Water District may impose a late fee if the debit entry is not paid by the Bank for a valid reason. The electronic drafts can be cancelled at any time by either party.
